

MISHKAN SHALOM - PNAI OR SHAVUOT OFFERING, THURS MAY 28, 2020

Celebrate the Festival of Shavuot with Pnai Or and Mishkan Shalom's R. Shawn Zevit, R. Marcia Prager, Hazzan Jack Kessler and guest teachers throughout the night as we open to what the Torah of our times has to reveal to us. Will include connection time from 7:30-8:00pm, Service from 8:00-8:30pm, then a variety of learning sessions, meditation, discussion, song and midnight chanting of the Prophet Ezekiel's message.

Click here to join Zoom ID: 865 6331 9981 Password: 295434

7:30pm- Gathering at the foot of the mountain- arrive quietly as music plays, welcoming and centering practice

8:00-8:30pm- Erev Shavuot service- R. Marcia and Hazzan Jack

8:30- 9:00pm- Offering #1- R. Shawn (introduces and facilitates after) Carol Towarnicky chanting and Aseret Hadibrot/The Ten Utterances)

9:00-9:15PM- live chant/music- Hazzan Jack Kessler

9:15pm- 10:00pm- Offering #2- Rabbi Tsurah August- All My Limbs Praise: A Moving Journey Through the Sefirot- using the arts and prayerfulness-

10:00 - 10:30 - Offering # 3 -teaching from RABBI PHYLLIS BERMAN- Revelation never stops if we know how to sh'ma/listen! Tuning in to the subtle messages from the Universe, from Life, from G!D, from the earth seems more possible in this quieter, slower, more crucial time of life-and-death that we're now living in the midst of. Hear the trees speaking to us in the magnificent introduction to The Overstory: A Novel by Pulitzer Prize winner Richard Powers.

10:30 ish- 11:00 PM- Breakout groups: "What has the Torah of the recent and ongoing global crisis revealed to you? Where has the Sacred been more apparent than before for you both in grief and loss as well as connection and change?"

11:00pm- 11:30pm- Offering #4- Analesa Berg “Tikkun HaNefesh, Healing the Soul with The Alphabet of Vibration: Hebrew Letter Mandalas for Peace”

In the style of early Kabbalists and 16th-century mystics of Safed, Analesa will use her original art series, The Alphabet of Vibration: Keys of Genesis, to relate the Hebrew letters to our bodies and use them in meditative ways. This interactive session will help you slow down, trust your inner wisdom, expand your creativity, and cultivate peace in your life. Download the handout and bring optional coloring pencils/markers if you wish.

11:30-11:35 pm – brief niggun interlude

11:35 - Midnight - Offering # 5- Guided experience with Rabbi Mordechai Liebling and Lynne Iser- What the Planet is Telling Us- exploring what the Earth is revealing to us in these pandemic times.

Midnight- (Kohenet Shoshana Bricklin)- Chanting from the Book of Ezekiel to mark the midnight hour and deepen the Shavuot experience.

12:15-12:30pm- (R. Shawn) closing reflection by all- People are free to go to other offerings through the night:

To continue after 12:30am: Recon Judaism- offerings on the hour through dawn:
Register at: <https://www.reconstructingjudaism.org/webform/streaming-event?eid=2733>) or <https://www.facebook.com/ReconstructingJudaism/>